

General State Budgets 2012

The Government agrees on the unavailability of loans between Ministries of 600 million

13 July 2012. The Council of Ministers has passed a resolution on the non-availability of loans worth 600 million euros charged to the General State Budget 2012, evenly distributed across all ministerial departments.

The Government hopes that this measure will once again demonstrate how one of the keys of its economic policy is the guarantee of budget stability, in order to recover the path of economic growth and job creation, while strengthening confidence in the Spanish economy.
