

Council of Ministers

The 2011 General State Accounts are presented to the Court of Audit

26 October 2012. The Council of Ministers has approved an agreement to present to the Court of Audit the General State Accounts for 2011, drawn up by the General Comptroller of the State Administration (IGAE) and as established in the General Budget Act.

The General State Accounts consist of the documents relating to the General Accounts of the administrative public sector, the General Accounts of the business public sector, and the General Accounts of the foundational public sector.

GENERAL ACCOUNT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE PUBLIC SECTOR

The General Accounts of the administrative public sector were formed by consolidating the annual accounts for 2011 of the state public sector entities whose accounting practices follow the accounting principles and regulations laid down in the General Public Accounting Plan.

GENERAL ACCOUNT OF THE BUSINESS PUBLIC SECTOR

The General Accounts of the business public sector were formed by aggregating the annual accounts for 2011 of the state public sector entities whose accounting practices follow the accounting principles and regulations laid down in the General Spanish Business Accounting Plan.
